The Luther B. Harris Collection To Be Kept In At The Old Home—Guest Night of The Union Club.

By the will of the late Luther B. Harris, it was provided that his collection of curios, old china, colonial furnishings, Indian relics and potteries should be kept intact, and that his sons should have the first opportunity to keep the collection. The sons have decided to take this offer and the collection will remain complete in the old home, which the oldest son William S. Harris will keep and maintain as his home. Here no doubt, it will be possible for those interested to visit and inspect this collection.

The Lyndon Union Club will observe their annual guest night Thursday evening of this week in Masonic hall. A very attractive program has been prepared by the social committee, and a pleasant social evening is assured. The tickets for members and guests can be procured at Dwinell's drug store.

Several changes in the dispatchers office here make Mr. Ahern, who has been head train dispatcher, trainmaster, and G. F. Ferguson, is promoted to head train dispatcher. Among visitors to the Hub last week we notice Mr. and Mrs. John Ahern, E. J. Blodgett and H. E. Folsom.

Remember the concert by the famous Cathedral Choir, which is to be given in Music hall this Wednesday evening as one of the entertainments in the lecture course. Mrs. G. M. Campbell was the hostess of the Christmas Club last Wednesday afternoon at an especially pleasant meeting.

The January ball given by the Village Improvement Society was held in Music hall, Friday evening, with a good attendance. The decorations were appropriate to the season of winter sports, as described last week. In one corner of the hall a booth was arranged for serving refreshments. The decorations will remain in the hall until after Gentlemen's night. Previous to the dancing a short and very pleasing concert was given. Selections were sung by the ladies of the Music Circle chorus, dressed in snow shoeing costumes, by a male quartet consisting of Messrs. Eaton, Walker, Griswold and a solo by Mr. L. T. Huntley. Miss Burns orchestra also played and furnished excellent dance music. Village trustee W. H. Parker announced that by order of the County Sheriff and the Board of Civil authority, no tango or similar dances will be tolerated in Lyndonville and that the law will be strictly enforced—a decision which was heartily applauded and represents the sentiment of the best people of the community. The grand march was led by Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Parker, and the floor was well filled with dancers who enjoyed the inspiring music, ice cream and wafers were served. The gallery was well filled with spectators and there was a good sum added to the treasury of the society.

First Baptist Church, Annual Roll Call

The Annual Roll Call and Supper were held in the Baptist Church, Friday evening, January 2, 1914. The supper was served at 6:30 and the tables were full. The supper was in charge of a committee consisting of Mrs. George C. Wright, Mrs. W. H. McFarlin, Mrs. W. T. Parks, Mrs. O. H. Henderson, Mrs. E. S. Spaulding, Mrs. J. R. Ricker and Mrs. W. B. Pinkham.

After the supper there was an adjournment to the church. The pastor, Rev. Frank S. Tolman presided. He conducted a devotional service; followed by reports from the various committees; the clerk reported a gain of thirteen new members, most of whom are adults; the treasurer, W. A. Wright, reported that it had been a good year financially to the church, the offerings having been the largest in its history. A good deal of repairing had been done and many improvements have been made on the property. Mr. Wright made a strong plea for a still larger income so that all the bills may be promptly met and the people are already responding to this request. Mrs. George Thompson reported that the missionary appropriation was met last year. Mrs. O. H. Henderson reported that it had been the best year for the Ladies' Aid. The reports of the Visiting and Flower Committees were encouraging. The Nominating Committee, through its chairman, Mrs. Robert Gordon, reported the following officers and committees for this year; the report was adopted and the list is as follows: Deacons, L. S.
